What explanation does Cheever give for Parris' crazy appearance? He thinks it's caused by the cows. In other words, the cows are left wandering because their masters are in prison, and there is much strife in the city over ownership and the whole political scene. What did Abigail do? She disappeared with all Parris' savings and went to Boston. Parris says you can't hang this type. There's a danger to me. What kind does he mean and what is the danger to him? Since Proctor, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Martha and others were honest citizens, people were really hesitant about their dealings with the devil. Since Parris was so involved in the prosecution of these individuals, he began to receive threats on his life. Explain Danforth's reason that a pardon would not be fair. He would look bad for releasing those accused when so many before them were condemned. Why has Hale come back to Salem? To make his mistake right again. What does Hale want Elizabeth to do? Talking to Proctor and convincing him to confess. What happened to Giles? He was pushed to death. Proctor says, my honesty is broke, Elizabeth, I'm not a good man. Explain what he means. At this point he has decided to confess even though he is not guilty. He tells a lie to save his own life. What confession did Elizabeth make to John? She was a cold-hearted woman and it was her fault that he cheated on her. What did Proctor do after he signed the confession? Why? He tore it up and took back his confession, because he wanted to leave this world with a clean slate. I have given you my soul; Leave me my name! Explain what this means. When Proctor signs his confession, he doesn't want them to hang it on the church for all to see and judge. He has his goodness now. God forbid I take it from him! Explain. Proctor regains his goodness by taking advantage of his death hanging rather than becoming an accomplice to the misguided authorities. If she were to convince Proctor to give a public confession (and thus save his life), Elizabeth would put him back in the situation where his goodness would be lost.
